THE WEEKLY CLARION

WE are glad to learn that Capt. Duffin, the energetic contractor, has engaged to bring the Natchez Road VOLUME XLV. through to this city by the 1st of September.

THE Natchez Democrat gives the whereby the Directory of the N. J. & is fully competent for the place. C. Railroad Company negotiated for an amount of money sufficient to enable them to complete the road to Jackson. It is from a member of the Directory, as he was only taken with a chill on the complete the road to Jackson.

is to be held by the syndicate and voted by them in stockholders' meetings during the ing to the code of Judge Lynch. the expiration of twelve months, the stock issued to the syndicate shall be put up for sale to the highest bidder, and the proceeds devoted to the payment of the loan. To redeem this stock the company rely upon the carnings of the road, and the sale of the bonds of the company, which they ardson as president: Ed. Richardson, Geo. hope to negotiate in a Northern market C. Waddill, A. P. Souer, F. Strueby, W. P. when they are put in proper shape to be Richardson. A. P. Souer was chosen secplaced in the market. Whilst this stock is thus hypothecated for a sum that is a very retary and manager. low figure for the large amount of stock, it At an election held in Lexington for is understood that it shall be offered, if the Mayor and Marshal, last week, W. L. Dyer,

At a meeting of the Refuge Oil Mill

NEWS AND NOTES.

largest we have ever had, the yield and that town. quality being unsurpassed, three couples, ranging in age from 15 to 20 bee is in remarkably good condition, and Magnificent monuments were erected, years. One pair, was composed of a daugh- that cotton in the prairie section is also among them the Pharos, the Museum, and procession he took the son aside. ter of the editor of the Waco Examiner looking well. and the daughter of the Episcopal pastor at | The Chickasaw Messenger says that two that place. They fied to the Indian nation, mutes, Misses Lucy King and Ora Ashby, in 48 B. C., and eighteen years later August man.

paper, and buried in a tilled field, the own. to the Institution. is grown upon it.

Huron, and had fun riding on a log at first; resigned. but a wind blew them several miles from the shore, and for thirty-six hours they were burned by day, chilled by night, and torthe shore, and for thirty-six hours they were Lieut. Oscar Crosby, who took second honor burned by day, chilled by night, and tor- at West Point, arrived there last Friday, tured by hunger, before a boat picked them and will remain in the South till the last of it to the Arabs in 641. It then contained laid on 179 railroads of the United States York harbor, and will be engaged in testing during the first six months of this year- and experimenting with submarine torreally about three and a half working pedoes. months. During the corresponding period of last year two thousand miles were laid, and at that time the record of no similar period in previous years had reached even that amount. Texas heads the list among States with over seven hundred miles of new track.

Married-At Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. Means, son, three feet high.

them to kick a wolf to death.

An Ohio physician dug seven graves for a like number of his patients, but was sent to an insane asylum before he could kill the Egyptian question. Her story is that Arabi, through which the proposed route was to early in his career, fell madly in love with go. He was so captivated by it that he be an Egyptian girl, the daughter of a fellah; and completion of the road. He has there but the unscrupulous Ismail, then Khedive, fore made up his mind to push it through also took a fancy to the girl, and had her "Is Huntington interested in it." carried off to his harem without even saying "by your leave." He tried to pacify probable that he is, and that he and Wilson are working together." the luckless Arabi by making him a Bey, "What is the character of the but Arabi never forgave the injury, and done?" from that moment vowed dire vengeance upon Ismail and all his family.

Wilson sold it was above high
With such force and so thick as to interiere

gained to find perfect control of the southern lineagencer,

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with its footing. He southern findentified at one part of the road that for about this. In some of the smaller streams

by H. H. Miller and C. L. Buck, with which the famous duelist A. K. Me

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with such force and so thick as to interiere

with its footing.

R. Creecy; the Southern findentified at one part of the road that for about this. In some of the smaller streams

by H. H. Miller and C. L. Buck, with

which the famous duelist A. K. Me
with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such force and so thick as to interier the

with such f Bishop Levi Scott, the senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church of

In the last ten years there have been 44,- and that the people will be protected from 600 new farms opened in Arkansas, which is any more such disastrous floods.

an average of 600 new farms in ten years to Scene During the Confirmation of each county. Silver was first coined in Rome in the year of the city 484, five years before the The Louisville Courier-Journal says: first Punic war. Gold coin was first struck At Christ Church yesterday the rite of con

On her wedding day, an Indiana girl wrote a letter, sealed it in an envelope, and gave it to an intimate friend. "If I am Governor Blackburn passed out of his pow alive six months from now," she said, and advanced into the charcel, where he "give this back to me unorganed. If Lam was met by Bishop Dudley. At the close "give this back to me unopened. If I am of the hymn the usual services prepared for dead, read it." On the day that the half the admission of persons into the church year expired, the bride committed suicide, was read, and the Chief Executive of Kenand the enclosure was found to be a state-ment that she expected no joy from the ment that she expected no joy from the marriage but was willing to give it a trial before deciding to take her own life.

Alonzo D. McCarthy, a young lawyer of Greenville Times.] Decatur, Ind., had great difficulty in winning Miss Rhodes for a bride. She loved him, but feared that his habit of frequent action for a few days? I am greatly emintoxication would make him a sot, and barrassed by petitions and counter petitions would only consent to marry him on his solemn promise of total abstinence. On the day appointed for the wedding he committed of legislation to confer jurisdiction on gensuicide, leaving letters to explain that he could not keep his pledge, and would die rather than break it. rather than break it.

Two Indiana farmers quarrelled about a To this the following reply was sent: wrench, and went to law. The costs of "We will try to take care of ourselves, court and counsel fees have reached $1,700, and will not press for a special session at expensive restaurants, where, however, both litigants have mortgaged their prop- present."

Judge Hancock has given the appoint-

OVER THE STATE.

were not available, except as the road was completed through the county; the bonds of the Company owing to slight errors in the Company owing to slight errors in The Observer gives an account of the The principles for which Mr. Davis and the county of the The principles for which Mr. Davis and the county of the Company owing to slight errors in The Observer gives an account of the The principles for which Mr. Davis and the county of the Company owing to slight errors in the county, about fifty years to meet the leader of such a great cause. Because at the road was settlement of the county, about fifty years to meet the leader of such a great cause. Because, although there may be a failure in fact, in idea there is no failure possible. Well known horse jockey in Montgom—From the New York L dger

Company fail to redeem it within twelve months, in the public market to the highest bidder.

Alexander the Great sought to found a children. One day Mrs. George Bilger, and in 332 children. One day Mrs. George Bilger, and in 332 children. One day Mrs. George Bilger, of this city, who was a relative of Mr. P. C. Foose was re-elected to the position of Marshal.

Alexander the Great sought to found a children. One day Mrs. George Bilger, of this city, who was a relative of Mr. P. C. Foose was re-elected to the position of Marshal.

Alexander the Great sought to found a children. One day Mrs. George Bilger, of this city, who was a relative of Mr. Presidency. Hagan was an Irishman, bottom of the case of its excellent position.

Bout, died, and was taken to Frederick of Mr. Presidency. Hagan was an Irishman, bottom of the case of the control of the contro

M. E. Joseph, of the firm of Joseph The authorities all sgree that the wheat Hart, of Woodville, died on the 15th. He crop of the United States this year is the was for forty years a successful merchant of

A Texas element party was made up of three couples, ranging in age from 15 to 20

A Texas element party was made up of three couples, ranging in age from 15 to 20

A Texas element party was made up of three couples, ranging in age from 15 to 20

A Texas element party was made up of three couples, ranging in age from 15 to 20

A Texas element party was made up of three couples, ranging in age from 15 to 20

A Texas element party was made up of three control of learning, and schools of the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the excellence and ability the conviction that all our of the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the excellence and ability the conviction that all our of the excellence and ability to convict the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the excellence and ability to convict the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the excellence and ability to convict the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the conviction that all our of the excellence and ability to convict the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the world, is equally distinct the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the world, is equally distinct the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the convict that the convict the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the came to Missis-both were boys, and was amazed to find the convict that t and got married all at a time.

Searches for arms in Irrand are generally fruitless. The weapons, the weapons, wrapped in what may be crited waterproof.

The weapons, and see a credit waterproof. The waterproof wrecked in reputation by his fer-cious baths, and Pompey's pillar, with the Roman distribution of the father of 70 and persistent assaults. He was encoded the waterproof and persistent assaults. They were written with of scoundrels. They were written with the second that we five distance in the water water water with the second that we five distance in the water water with the second that we five distance in the water water with the second that we five distance in the water water er alone knowing the precise spot, as a crop Mr. Heber Craft has been appointed Caracalla visited the city and ordered a brace. For hours the two sat close in a rencountre with Gen. D. W. Adams, Brennan, Ryan, Jewell, Dracky, McCon. D. L. Adams, Two Michigan girls went bathing in Lake here, in place of Mr. J. C. Robinson, who

Five thousand miles of main track were engineering corps, at Willet's Point, New

Mr. Turbeville, who was shot at West Point, is almost out of danger. ---

The Memphis and New Orleans

Correspondent Memphis Appeal.] Work has already been begun from Vicksthree feet and a half high, to Mis Harri- burg in the direction of Memphis. The road will be about 470 miles long. A great the request of the Governor, is on a visit to way to the front against jelousies and number of workmen have been employed, Knute Knutson, noted in northern Wis- and Mr. Wilson told Major Meriwether he gating the charges of cruel treatment, etc. people could throw in his way. He was consin for the great size of his feet, utilized able surprise has been expressed" said he tigation will be we are not informed.—Ento the reporter, "that Mr. Wilson at his 000 to parties interested in the road, and in order to protect himself helhad to buy

"That, of course, I don't know. It is the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, died at his home near Odessa, Del., aged 80 years.

In the last ten years there have been 44,
The methodist Episcopal Church of the high water of 1856, but not that of this year. He says he will trust to luck a little. He high water of 1856, but not that of this country that the weaker fish are crowded out onto the banks are strewn with dead fish thus thrown up. Less the mean of the popular clamor for him, although the mean out of the stream with dead fish thus thrown up. Less than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with shower than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the stream with sh

Gov. Blackburn.

firmation was administered by Bishop Dud-Eight clergymen preached simultaneous-ly in the Eastern Penitentiary, Philadel-the ceremony nothing of an unusual char-

"Accept, my Lord, my heart this day, And keep it always Thine, That I from Tace may never stray, Nor from Thy way decline,"

The Levees-Special Session.

JACKSON, MISS., July 10, 1882. Could your Levee Board not suspend

Oscar Wilde and Jefferson Davis.

The Atlanta Constitution reporter interfollowing statement showing statement of delivery clerk at the post-office to city, with the following result:

"You have been to see Mr. Jefferson "You have been to see Mr. Jefferson about Davis lately. Tell me something about THE RUINED CITY.

A Sketch of Alexandria-Its Ancient

Renown and Modorn Importance. Alexander the Great sought to found a the Temple of Serapis, and there were many to your father." Julius Casar besieged and took the city and 12,000 gardens.

tion was only 6,000. Superentendent McQniston's visit to the Convict Camp Near Enterprise.

Since writing the editorial on our second page in regard to the treatment of convicts we have had a visit from Capt. T. J. McQuiston, Superintendent of the penitentiary, and Mr. C. S. Jobes of the firm of Green &

terprise Courier, A correspondent of the Examiner writing from the "camp" or scene of operations, assures us that Mr. McQuiston, after thorough | boldness in thought and utterance and inquiry, found the charges to be unfounded, Superintendent to know that he would not him. It proved a failure, however, and A letter-writer at Alexandria, a woman, out the whole road. When he had done so go into any "white-washing business in he had occasion to go through the land order to shield any one who had been guilty of abuse to the convicts from punishment.-Aberdeen Examiner.

> Plenty of Salmon and to Spare. From the Territorial Enterprise.]

An Eastern paper sneers at the story that a horse found difficulty in fording a creek in Washington Territory on account of the in Washington Territory on account of the crush of salmon going up stream coming with such force and so thick as to interfere gained for him perfect control over the R. Creecy; the Southern Intelligencer, it is of his native State. His editors the constitute the character of the priests his warmest allies and has native American paper by Col. James to interfere gained for him perfect control over the R. Creecy; the Southern Intelligencer, the southern are the constitute the character of the priests his warmest allies and has native American paper by Col. James to interfere gained for him perfect control over the R. Creecy; the Southern Intelligencer, the priests his warmest allies and has native American paper by Col. James to interfere gained for him perfect control over the R. Creecy; the Southern Intelligencer, the priests his warmest allies and has native American paper by Col. James to interfere gained for him perfect control over the R. Creecy; the Southern Intelligencer, the priests his warmest allies and has native American paper by Col. James to interfere gained for him perfect control over the R. Creecy; the Southern Intelligencer, the priests his warmest allies and has native American paper by Col. James to interfere gained for him perfect control over the R. Creecy; the Southern Intelligencer, the priests him to be a supplied to the constitute the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the constitute the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the character of the priests him to be a supplied to the priests him to be a supplied in Idaho, and ship so much of the salted fish to the Utah settlements that the article was as much of a drug on the market as the sorghum-cured grass-hoppers, which were the cheapest and most plentiful.

Mr. Walton's Lost Collar Button.

From the Eatonton Chronicle.]

Rev. Thomas K. Beecher.]

he does not dine far from it!

erty to raise the money, and the case is continued.

We regard this as the and of the "special session" question. Although it is disappointing, we have no feeling of blame or consure to express toward Governor Lowry. Such expressions would be unjust. No one journey toward it, casts the shadow of cur burden behind us.

Leisure is sweet the does not this friends having seen nothing of him for some days, begin to ask each other what has become of him.

"I hear he is laid up with an attack of indigestion."

Every unpleasant that I have become of him that I have become lutions.—Richter.

JAPHET THE SECOND.

How a Man Found His Father After

Fifty years. Philadelphia Record. A strange thing happened at Frederick Station, in Montgomery county, a It is from a member of the Directory, and one who has taken an active interest in the enterprise, is given to us as the facts in regard to the negotiation:

The Company found itself, after the completion of the road to a certain point, without funds; the bonds of the road to a certain point, without funds; the bonds of the county of Ala, moving there from his out funds; the bonds of the county of a personality to be a leader of an account of a personality that is as father, Aaron Bout, a rich old merchant of 70, who lives on Heas street, in this city. Neither knew that the bonds of the road to a certain point, without funds; the bonds of the county of Hinds ware not available, except as the road war not available as the leader of a leader of father, Aaron Bout, a rich old man of 50, was introduced to his father, Aaron Bout, a rich old man of 50, who lives on Heas street, then the day previous, from which he never ralled. Mr. Thomas was in his 80th year and the day previous, from which he never ralled. Mr. Thomas was in his 80th year and the day previous, from which he never ralled. Mr. Thomas was in his 80th year and the day previous, from which he never ralled. Mr. Thomas was in his 80th year and the day previous from the clear that is as father, Aaron Bout, a rich old man of 50, was introduced to his father, Aaron Bout, a rich old man of of the Company owing to slight errors in their preparation were not negotiable in the northern money markets; there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by McLellan who broke into the bed room of the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and there was no longer a chance to raise a temporary loan by the road and the mortgage on the road, and there was no a little daughter of Mr. R. G. King, a most orate detail of military maneuvre is at be found in the radius of fifty miles. other collateral upon which to base a loan but the stock of the Company. In this sitnation, application was made to some of the capitalists of our community for a tempo- Oliver Brown, a justice of the Peace, for excapitalists of our community for a tempo-rary loan until the bonds of the Company amination. On the trial he admitted that It is impossible not to think nobly of a in the saddle and no one could manage could be placed and the money raised to pay off the indebtedness of the Company.

The amount required was finally advanced by some of our ewn capitalists on the following terms: Stock of the Company to the amount of one million and a pany to the amount of one million and a half dollars was issued to these capitalists, half dollars was issued to these capitalists, as special deputy, half dollars was issued to these capitalists, as special deputy, half dollars was issued to these capitalists, as special deputy, half dollars was issued to these capitalists, as special deputy, half dollars was issued to these capitalists, as special deputy, half dollars was issued to these capitalists, as special deputy, half dollars was issued to these capitalists, as special deputy, half dollars was issued to these capitalists. for which they were to loan, for the period of twelve months, to the company, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. This stock is to be held by the syndicate and voted by cause it possesses the most perfect surround. also died. But while the one was them in stockholders' meetings during the time it is held by them. It is, however, understood that if the company within the bideous ruling the hideous ruling the hideous ruling the hideous ruling the war, I have not only the stock is to be returned to the Company. If there is a failure on the part of the garlier on the part of the stock is to be returned to the young from the stock is to be returned to the company of this loan or to make a satisficant pay off this loan or to make a satisficant pay of the war, I have nod oubtings; and now that it is recovering from pounding about the earth, leading about the tendel. Often the hideous ruling and adventure ings; and now that it is recovering from pounding the war, I have nod oubtings; and now that it is recovering from pounding the war, I have nod oubtings; and now that it is recovering from pounding the war, I have nod oubtings; and now that it is recovering from pounding the war, I have nod to Shakespeare.

In 1863 his entire printing established in from whom the Whig passed to Col. W.

H. McCardle, when the war, hat she will continue to perfect what she mestic man of business, accumulated tors, who in turn were succeeded by opposed to Secession. It exerted all its At a meeting of the Refuge Oil Mill Company in Vicksburg the following Board of Directors was elected, with Col. E. Rich of Directors was elected, with Col. E. Rich of Directors was elected, with Col. E. Rich of Directors was elected. The rest of Directors was elected by opposed to Secession. It exerted all its industrial development. In 1875 and property and became the head of a numer-distribution of Directors was elected, with Col. E. Rich of Directors was elected, with Col. E. Rich of Directors was elected. There was a hole in the property and became the head of a numer-distribution of Directors was elected, with Col. E. Rich of Directors was elected, with Col. E. Rich of Directors was elected. There was a hole in the property and became the head of a numer-distribution of Directors was elected, with Col. E. Rich of Directors was elected. The read Shakespeare.

[Laughter.] There was a hole in the industrial development. In 1875 and property and became the head of a numer-distribution of the was re-clected to the Legislature by large majorities, devoting his talents which she nursed her children, and two years old, and was born when the worked on some bind of terms. father had reached the ripe old age of first born, all of them alive. In the is twelve miles west of the western Nile and between the Mediterranean Sea and Lake Marcotis. The city grew rapidly, and soon the first the father, and in the company at the Departments at Washington. He was a radiate of the University of Dubling the season of the Season State of the University of Dubling the season of the Season State of the University of Dubling the season of became the great center of Eastern com- church was the son. Neither was aware a graduate of the University of Dublin ; merce. The Ptolemies succeeded Alexander of the other's name or identity. An was a small man, not at all demonstraand under them the city contained 300,000 old patriach of the neighborhood met tive, reserved, unobstrusive, and appar-unmasking corruption, or gibbiteng a man city wall were erected during this pe- and the son of 50, each somewhat be- and persistent assaults. He was engaged bam, Bradford, Leland, Tyler, Hurst, riod. In the year 215 the Roman Emperor | wildered, were in a long and warm em-Stock and Fuel Agent for the R. R. Co. bere, in place of Mr. J. C. Robinson, who resigned.

"Impossible! I have no father.

Stock and Fuel Agent for the R. R. Co. below at the friendly shade of a neighbor's vine-clad porch, all unconscious of the curious gaze of the population. In 273 an insurrection resulted in the destruction of the great library of the curious gaze of the library of library of the curious gaze of the library of the curious gaze of the library of the library of the curious gaze of the library of the curious gaze of the library of the library of the library of the curious gaze of the library of the library of the curious gaze of the library of the library of the library of the curious gaze of the library of the curious gaze of the library of the curious gaze of the library of the sians captured the city in 616, and yielded phia but once in his life was pressed to September. He has been assigned to the 400 palaces, 400 theatres, 4,000 public baths Heas street, above Twelfth, and when the crops have been harvested on the and soon had to exchange several shots. I am aware I have omitted many prom

ACHMET ARABI PASHA.

and Ruler of Egypt.

From a Fellah to be Minister of War

Achmet Arabi Pasha is undoubtedly the strongest man in Egypt, By birth he is a fellah or peasant. He entered Jobes, contractors. Capt. McQuiston, at the army as a private and worked his the convict camps with a view of investi- all the unprincipled schemes envious dismissed from the army on a dubious charge of corruption by a jealous War Minister. Subsequently he was reinstated, and still later on account of his great popularity, he was made Suband we are sufficiently acquainted with the Minister of War in the hope of silencing he has been constantly growing in power. As soon as he entered the War Office he rousted the Christian, Jews and ever he undertakes. His unfaltering constancy to Mohammedanism has made The Young Men of the South.

A correspondent of the Detroit Free Press has the following to say about the young men of the Sonth:

One who has visited the principal Several yerrs ago, Mr. P. W. Walton of South and North Carolina, must have agricultural community. Eatonton, Ga., lost a gold collar button. a fair idea of what the young men are At present I believe the the ceremony nothing of an unusual charter of the ceremony nothing of the ceremony nothi Some Characteristics of New England and in every case I found them study- increased its influence and circulation- tations, he came South in 1844, and ing law or medicine-keeping books, It subsequently was sold to Gen. Charles pitched his tent in Raymond. He found slaved her water-courses, and has gone young men of the South are not only this distinguished gentleman assisted by ducted with marked ability, but, owing free from the sacrament of labor. Long-doing fully as well as the young men of the widely known indefatigable publisher to the system of receiving subscriptions headed she has become small hearted. the North, but in many cases they are and philanthropist, J. L. Power, may on credit, and the losses on collections, She has learned the "laws of trade and doing far better. I found scores of be considered the legitimate represent the paper was discontinued. Soon after

A FREE AND INDEPENDENT WIDOW.

Her busband died and left a small And ill-stocked farm, which was ber all. Hurd was her lot, as hard could be ; A widow, with her children three. Instead of sitting down to weep,

With her own hand she held the plow; She chopped the wood and milked the cow.

JOURNALISM IN MISSISSIPPI. Extract from Chapter 24, Volume 2, Claiborne's History of Mississippi.

READ BEFORE THE PRESS CONVENTION.

About the same time James R. Marsh. mission to execute, even if the penalty complished son.

James S. Fall, an Englishman, prac- not least, the venerable Dr. M. W. tical printer, associated with his brother George R. Fall in the "Mississippian" encyclopedia of valuable information at Jackson, now took charge of the foremost in all good works -- a christian-Sentinel. He was not the man for the partiot, teaching both by precept and exposition, but had the English pluck, ample. its population and trade diminished. Cairo took its place as the chief city of Egypt. It finally sank so low that in 1777 its population was only 6 000.

I am aware I have omitted many prominent newspaper men in this enumeration was only 6 000.

I am aware I have omitted many prominent newspaper men in this enumeration was only 6 000.

I am aware I have omitted many prominent newspaper men in this enumeration was only 6 000. the yellow fever. James Ryan, an ation particularly in the counties north Irishman, succeeded him but soon fell of Jackson, where there are so many in a duel with R. E. Hammett of the able writers, but I have named enough Vicksburg Whig. On the death of Ryan, Walter Hickey, of Natchez, of Irish Mississippi journalism. Most of these parentage, took charge of the Sentinel. encountered pecuniary difficulty in He wrote his editorials with two revol- their checkered career; engaged someevery time; finally killed Dr. Maclin the harness. in a street fight, emigrated to Texas, and there soon fell in a rencountre.

> Hickey and was equally combative. He Reveille, and Geo. W. Harper, got into a collision with the judicial au- Raymond Gazette-constituting t thority, and finally removed to Her- mous triumvirate. nando and established a paper. John Jenkins, a man of genius and a prominent family here since SI culture, a native of Claiborne county, times, and is held in universal es next took charge of the Sentinel, but by all classes and colors, as friend was soon killed in a street fight with H. counsellor. He is capable of dis murdered in Sonora. The paper subsequently passed successively into the hands of Dr. J. D. cock State of Delaware, a State McConnell, D. Walker, Lester & Bon- has given more talent and states Coptish clerks. He is ambitious, rest- sall, John M. Jewell, Edward Pickett, ship to the Union than some other less, contentious, and his ill-balanced wm. W. W. Wood, Royal & Dickey much larger dimensions, and to w zeal blinds his judgement. The Egyp- and Roy & McCullum, who merged it we are indebted for some of our tians are all with Arabi Pasha in what- into the Vicksburg Sun. Col. Roy of eminent citizens. Mr. Mason bro course was soon killed.

Then came the Constitutionalist, a the stern integrity, and lofty sem by H. H. Miller and C. L. Buck, with able and forgiving, he has no con which the famous duelist A. K. Mc- mise to make with fraud and delibe Next followed the Southron, by Col. pendence and practical statesmans ism and an evening paper by Swords & Geo. W. Harper was born in Ale:

These examples show the precarious among the stalwart sons of the me position of editors-the evanescent tain and the mine. At 13 years of a nature of newspapers-the hazard in in compliance with an irrepressible curred—the inadequacy of compensation clination, he was setting type in for the talent employed—and that it is office of the Wheeling Gazette, who less remunerative here than any other proprietor, S. H. Davis, had been cities and towns of Alabama, Georgia, pursuit, although indispensable in an pupil with Gales & Seaton, of the

I did not hear a dispute. I found them ocratic paper of the State. Fall sold and with a partner purchased the Gaeverywhere. I talked with hundreds, to V. E. and R. D. Howard, who greatly zette, but not succeeding to his expec-

Her venerable churches retain the form of Godliness, without the power. Lacking the conversation and hereditary in stitutions of old England—the throne the church and a ruling class—New England rashes whither old England follows with slower steps.

What Caused It.

A gummy whose fortune is ample as he pretends, makes a specialty of showing himself in front of expensive restaurants, where, how were gentled the measure of expensive restaurants, where, how were seen who were the party, struck hard been long before a small county part in the interest to the sea-board, news of granding ground in the lower than the same number of young men in the North, is reckless of facts. There may be black sheep to facts and was universally recognized as an grenadine ground. It is made up to over-colored satin of contrasting color of the state twenty years ago, and they were well preserved; but in discolored way. The pearly test, the figures of Spanish lace on a very thin grenadine ground. It is made up to over-colored satin of contrasting color over-colored satin of contrasting color of the State they were mere masks in discolored Mayor, and likewise Major of the county militia. He who has filled the measure of in Congress and Governor of the State to the county militia. He who has filled the measure of in Congress and Governor of the State to the county militia. He who has filled the measure of in Congress and Governor of the State to the party, struck hard figures of Spanish lace on a very thin discolored way. The pearly test, the figures of Spanish lace on a very thin discolored way. The pearly test, the figures of Spanish lace on a very thin discolored way. The pearly test have begin and anxious to secure places of high standing.

The new Grenada blonde has the figures of Spanish lace on a very thin discolored way. The fount of the county militia. He went is sufficiently to the station o when he died, it may be said the Paul- promise measures, the Gazette urged Janet Hamilton lived in the town of ding CLARION died also.

Since that period the "Mighty East" vative position, concentrating around it mistaken. I should like to tell you Since that period the "Mighty East" vative position, concentrating around it has been supplied chiefly by the able journalists at Meridian, Macon and by the Brandon Republican whose veteran assembled in the county, he was nominathe Brandon Republican, whose veteran editor and proprietor is one of the patriarchs of the press. When a mere boy, he entered in his native place, the largest convention ever assembled in the county, he was nominated as one of the Union candidates for the Legislature, and elected by 500 majoriand, as might be reasonably supposed, she became the wife of that journey-man (laughter) at a very early age. office of the Cumberland Alleganian, Committee on the Penitentiary, and man (laughter) at a very early age, and five years afterwards was setting inaugurated the manufacture of cotton earlier than I should recommend in type in the Louisville Journal, under goods in that institution. He steadily op-the eye of the renowned George D. posed every measure squinting towards life she had a family of ten children, Prentice. In 1851 Mr. Frantz landed in disunion, believing it better to bear the most of whom, I believe, grew up to Vicksburg, and found a position on the ills we have, than fly to those we know manhood and womanhood (hear, hear).

The Legister of the Legist Vicksburg, and found a position on the line we have, than it, to those we have, than it, to those we have, than it, to those we have and her mother, who was the shoemaker's wife, who taught her to read, did not learn against Col. Jeff. Davis. a small paper published by Pierce and tory.

came John M. Henderson, and after- domitable editor smuggled his materials fondly the sentiment: wards Marmaduke Shannon with the into a dense pine thicket, and there set "I know not, I care not, if guilt's in thy heart, history, biography, travels, and when 68. There are twenty-four children, not including the supposed-to-be-dead first born, all of them alive. In the meantime, Aaron Bout, Jr., had lived Hagan and Dr. Willis Green (a Vir. this, and the certainty of discomfiture an uneventful life, had married, bought ginian, a brother of the famous Gen, and ruin, the moment we drifted into a little farm and also reared a family of Duff Green of the Washington Tele- war, the Republican cast aside its fore-printer has been struggling for the prospeaity of Mississippi. His editorials are vigorous and emphatic. No man can the riparian counties, embracing the she had to do. So far as I know nothing the riparian counties, embracing the income and only the riparian counties. express himself more graceful, but in

"My father!" cried out the astonished lence, and his editorials established the adorn it, I remember the honored names impression that we lived in a community of Worthington, Acee, Stocton, Roy, in several duels, and was finally killed Shannon, Halliday, Draper, Sewards

The oldest editors in Mississi Thomas Grafton of the Natchez John Lavins an Irishman succeeded crat, J. S. Mason of the Port G The first is a native of the Sta

A. Crabbe, who not long afterwards was ling any subject and his pen 'ador that it touches fests more firmness, fearlessness, i dria, Va., but brought up in Whee nowned National Intelligencer. At present I believe the Herald and | Wheeling he frequently saw and hea his days has only learned how to begin to live.

— a man whose genius was only surpassed by his virtues—then a young lawyer purchased the Claricon, and in a year or so sold it to Simeon R. Adams, who seem made it a mammoth sheet, conducted with tact and ability, and pushed by its wonderful energy into that I have become untrue to my resolutions.—Richter.

— we should now say bulldozed—by his old friends in Ohio, to go there and conduct a campaign paper. He yielded to their importunities, and the Steubenville Journal, a campaign paper of extraordinary cogency and efficiency, was the polka-dotted white and ecru muslins; the trimmings are fancy muslin hand-kerchiefs and artificial daisies, butter-took to Raymond and to the Gazette, and in 1860 became its sole proprietor. In the little of the Duchess of Devonshire, "worn duct a campaign paper of the prettiest of the prettiest of the prettiest of the proposition, is one of the prettiest of the prettiest of the proposition, is one of the prettiest of the proposition, is one of the prettiest of the by the national trimmed with bows of brown velvet ribon, is one of the prettiest of the buchess of Devonshire, "worn duct a campaign paper of extraordinary cogency and efficiency, was the polka-dotted white and ecru muslins; the trimmings are fancy muslin hand-kerchiefs and artificial daisies, butter-took to Raymond and to the Gazette, and in 1860 became its sole proprietor. In the little of the Duchess of Devonshire, "worn duct a campaign paper of the yielded to the immed with bows of brown velvet ribon, is one of the prettiest of the publication, and the trimmed with bows of brown velvet ribon, is one of the prettiest of the Duchess of Devonshire, "worn duct a campaign paper of extraordinary cogency and efficiency, was the polka-dotted white and ecru muslins; the trimmed with bows of brown velvet ribon, is one of the prettiest of the buchess of by the national complete the proprieties of the propr

Salaran Marie Children Salaran Salaran

acquiescence, and took a strong conser-

"Whig," Judge Mills editor. Next up and issued the paper immediately cyrus Griffin who sold to F. A. Tyler, after the invader departed! Often during the war he was compelled to ment was destroyed by the invading was like a revelation to her. [Cheers.] The state of the could be seen the could be seen the could be seen to the could be seen to the could be seen the could b us into it. It predicted all that has occurred. On our side no preparation—no manufactures—no navy—no arsenals—no money—no foreign relations—als—no money—no foreign relations—legislator and citizen, no man commands more universal confidence. He is a member of the Methodist Church, Summer and ruin, the moment we drifted into war, the Republican cast aside its foreeleven children; proprietor of one of read, to read a chapter in her Bible, Southern flag! the best and most firmly planted journals in the State, which is now mainly till she left her home and had a home conducted by his son, Sam. D. Harper, of her own. Her tot tot be standing the largest body and most fertile cotton ing was neglected, but she suffered from lands in the world, is equally distinof its public journals. Beginning with the effect of very much injuring and at the eminent name of Col. Robt, Camp-last depriving her of her sight. bell, of the Yazoo Democrat, we may Somebody asked her how, having "Come," said he, "I will introduce you was martyrdom. He attacked all who reses healds the brillient man who now did not second him, with extreme vio-Point Gazette, and other men who wrote also for one of Cassell's publica-

I cannot close this imperfect report of books," but a natural gift of grammar.

world renowned Picayune-nee Miss Poitevant, of Hancock county-combines rare intellectual power and exquisite poetical talent, with the business capacity required by, and indispen-

NUMBER 30 From John Bright's Birmingham Speech.] Coatbridge, in Lanarkshire, if I am not to read till she was 50; she became The year previous he was married to In 1852 Brandon was substantially, Miss Anna L. Sims, a niece of the blind at 60, and snow that the beabout 75 or 76. blind at 60, and she lived, I think, to destroyed by fire, and thus perished the eminent statesman, Gen. Cowles Meade, office and materials of the Republican, so distinguished in our Territorial his. As for the points of her life, she never saw a mountain, she never saw any river Andrew Harper. They bought the material of the Vicksburg True Issue and resumed publication. Frantz bought an interest in it, and in two strenous efforts to avert disunion. But hood at 5 or 6 years of age Bible stories, years was proprietor and editor of the when in a paroxysm of desperation, the little stories that her mother procured * * * Vicksburg, the birth standing the many and vital vicissitudes deeply regretting and deprecating her by accident on the beam of a weaver's place of printing in Mississippi, has been encountered, he has never missed a precipitation, and knowing the tremend- loom in her neighborhood two volumes, prolifie in newspapers, famous for its single issue! I believe the same cannot ous odds she must encounter, neverthe- one was "Paradise Lost," and the other fighting editors, and for the number that be said of any other paper. When less determined to share her destiny, was Allan Ramsay's poems. She read have been slain. Wm. H. Benton estab- Sherman's army was approaching Bran- He did not pause to enumerate her mis- with extraordinary eagerness, and did lished the "Republican" in 1825. Next don, and during its occupancy the in- takes, or to censure her action, but felt not forget what she read, which some of us are apt to do.

The great valley of the Yazoo, with character of her childhood and the work would adorn any profession. Our sea-cost counties, the brightest almost impossible now to read her writjewels of the State, sparkling, instruc- ing, the letters are so curiously formed; tive newspapers, conducted with spirit but she was asked how she came to write and dignity, their editors conspicuous so grammatically, and she replied: in every wholesome form, and contribu- "You may as well ask why the lark con ting largely to the development of that sing." God had given her not, as Sr beautiful district.

the Press of Mississippi, and personal, [Laughter.] This old lady has written without enrolling at the head of the list, poems, of which, if there were time, as meriting your ani ed homage, the fair would have quoted two or three, but daughters of our State, who not only certainly there are some of them which, write vigorous and polished editorials, if placed among the poems of Burns in but have entered into all the details of a volume of his, no one would for a moment doubt they were the production of One of them, Mrs. Holbrook, of the the greatest of all the Scotch poets. sible, to a great metropolitan journal.

David Dundas said, "a great love of sitting up to read till two o'clock in the tions when 54 yerrs of age, and it is

HOW TO STAY GOOD-LOOKING. youth, who hears the leaves begin to The other, Mrs. Emily Van M. Mil-drop, and sees the roses curl in the ler, of Claiborne county, sister of our warm summer of her life-this chapter He wrote his editorials with two revol-vers kept cocked upon his table; had three engagements, and was wounded the old vocation and died in epart- quick feeling, an amiable indifference to the homage that youth covets eagerly. The woman of--who dares fill in the age ?-- the woman who finds the faint lines on her check and the pallor creeping to her lip should have learned and tasted many things in her life-so many pro that she can appraise the value of all, his and finding none of lasting worth, rethe not for what they were, but for what they were not. She should have loved, the sign them contentedly, with a little sigh ased and, if possible, have been loved, though it is of less matter. The experience, Il of the wisdom, the self-renunciation come through loving, not through any reward the of love. It is well for her, too, if she can accept the compliment of her affection, and find out of what mutable elements it is made; its fervor and forget-Mis- fulness; its devotion, often celipsed and as often surprising with its fresh strength -weak where we trust it most, and standing proof where we disdainfully expect its fall. Such is the love of man. It is a riddle learning which has cost gray hairs on tender temples, the are roses from many cheeks. It is our tradition that love makes or mars a woman's life; but I have yet to learn that this it does not exert an equal though silent power over the lot of men. Be that, orte beautiful than one out of it, and this is true if the love lasts to three score. okes Let women, if they would remain charming, keep by all means their hold bine on love, their faith in romance. The power of feeling gives vitality and inr the has passed. Speaking as a matter of sea- fact, this is the case, for emotion has a livelier power over the blood than even the caseron pointing of a fundamental tables of the sunday to invisible audiences. This prison is conducted on the principle of solitary confinement. Each prisone is conducted on the principle of solitary confinement. Each prisone his own lonely cell. These cells open on eight corridors, radiating from an octagonal centre. The preachers stood at the outer er and for the ceremony nothing of the ceremony nothing of the theory is the sunday and the miracle of love in wars, when it about two years it returned to its owner, after a journey fraught with any a weary apprehension. Afr. Wallanta, Sonator in Congress—Governor—Superintendent of the tribution of the ritual content. The preachers stood at the outer er and fattened a pet cow, and upon batches, in the case of the cells in their advances and from the part of one who has been so log and so well known as a non-professor of the certain and formation of the corridors, and could be heard by the corridors, and could be heard by the middle of the prison experienced the many and from the part of one who has been so log and so well known as a non-professor of the certain and formation of the corridors, and could be heard by the corridors, and could be heard by the middle of the prison experienced the novel sensation of listening to eight sermions at one.

On her welding day, an Indiana girl.

Not the case of the cells in their addition of the intensity of the certain and from the part of one who has been so lost two years it returned to its owner, after a journey frequirity saw and near lighting the merely than days and near least two presses of the cells in their special set of the corridors, and could be heard by the corridors, and could be heard by the corridors, and could be heard by the corridors, radiating from an octagonal content. The preachers stood on the part of one who has been so log and so well known as a non-professor log and fattened a pet cow, and upon the corridors, radiating from an octagonal content. The preachers stood at the outer and fattened a p I as the sun has, and the miracle of love in used in fine millinary and for neck ribbans and bows on white morning dresses.

thos enough in the piano to stir tenderly chords of feeling that were growing dull for want of fire. The rose of morn-Parisan laced shoes with pointed per- ing, the perfume of spring, have rapbehind counters, or out in the fields M. Price, a man of mark in his day, employment on the South-Western Far- forated toes of patent leather on French many a middle-aged woman away to Ingenious, thrifty new England en- work, but they are ambitious. The dale. The CLARION long conducted by N. G. North buttoned boots.

with their coats off. They not only from whom it passed to Hon. E. Barks- mer, then conducted by N. G. North buttoned boots.

work, but they are ambitious. The dale. The CLARION long conducted by and Dr. M. W. Phillips. It was con-A new fancy for plaited skirts of fine woolen dressess is to put wide box-plaits alternating with a group of knife-plaits the whole length of the skirt.

A new fancy for plaited skirts of fine Youth has its daylong reveries while its hands are at work. We older ones need to reserve with jealous care our She has learned the "laws of trade and forgotten the law of love. She exults in the power of capital, and has forgotten the power of God. Watching for dividends she has forgotten the power of dividends she has forgotten the power of God. Watching for dividends she has forgotten the power of capital, and by their unaided efforts, and scores more with bright prospects ahead. He who asserts that they shirk labor wrongs the venerable churches retain the form. He who asserts that they drink labor wrongs the party, struck hard labor wrongs the party was decidedly whigh in politics, maintained all the issues of the party, struck hard labor wrongs the party, struck hard labor wrongs the party was decidedly which the springs of the whole length of the skirt.

Sam. T. King and Geo. W. Harper established the Hinds County Gazette— a success from the very outset. It was decidedly Whigh in politics, maintained all the issues of the party, struck hard labor wrongs the party, struck hard labor wrongs the party, struck hard labor wrongs the party was decidedly which the skirts and white length of the skirt.

Sam. T. King and Geo. W. Harper established the Hinds County Gazette— a success from the very outset. It was skirts and white lawn-tennis cloth for asserts that they shirk labor wrongs the party wool all the issues of the party was decidedly which the springs.

The new Grenada blonds has the success from the very outset. It was a succe